Project Description

The Executive Office (EX) of the Bureaus of Near Eastern Affairs (NEA) and South and Central Asian Affairs (SCA) is putting together a team of automation specialists - students familiar with or willing to learn the coding necessary to make platforms like ServiceNow and SharePoint Online do amazing things via the cloud. Your talents will be put to the test as the office explores automation opportunities and sprints to implementation.

The team will be expected to work with Department specialists to work with Department personnel to identify automation opportunities and create the necessary structures, process flow charts, and the necessary code for modern business platforms like ServiceNow and SharePoint Online. Interested interns should show an ability to learn quickly and have a portfolio of similarly aligned work.
